

2022 MAHO PAUL WINTERS MEMORIAL ANNUAL CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIP

To assist current MAHO members in their efforts to improve as inspectors the organization is offering two scholarships to help with the cost of attending the 2022 annual conference in Traverse City on June 8, 9, 10.

Scholarship benefits: Two (2) scholarships covering the registration fee for the annual conference including double occupancy lodging.

Not Covered: Transportation/gas to and from conference, food other than what is provided to all members during the conference.

Requirements for receiving scholarships:

- Applicant must be a current MAHO member.
- Applicant must submit a letter stating how they believe the training would be beneficial and help them improve their job performance.
- A letter from applicant's supervisor or department head must be submitted stating that they believe this training would be beneficial to the applicant, and due to training budget shortages the applicant would not otherwise be able to attend the conference.

Letters must be received by May 09, 2022. Applicants will be notified of decisions either way by May 15, 2022.
